Kia Ora,

As Mayor of Palmerston North, I want to extend a warm welcome to you and your family. Palmerston North, in the Manawatu region of New Zealand, has an array of excellent tertiary, secondary and primary education institutions that have high standards and international reputations to match. Our city values international students and their families because of the long-lasting relationships that are developed. We are a friendly and welcoming community, and our city has achieved World Health Organisation-accredited Safe City status.

Home to residents from more than 130 countries, we are provincial New Zealand's most multicultural city. We celebrate diversity and actively encourage those studying here to participate in sports, arts and cultural activities. By being involved with the community, your time here will allow for long-standing friendships to develop and endure.

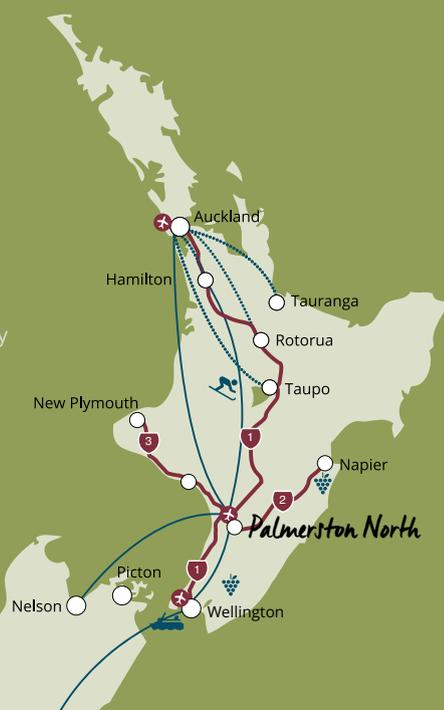

I am also proud to say that our community and world-leading institutions will provide you and your family with superb pastoral support while you study here. Palmerston North is easy to get around and has a lower cost of living compared to other cities in New Zealand. Our central location in the North Island means it is easy to explore other regions in our beautiful country. Thank you for considering Palmerston North for your educational pursuits. I look forward to meeting you and welcoming you to our city.

Ngā mihi nui,

Grant Smith
Mayor of Palmerston North
